

PETERS & PETERS

'The Law of Criminal Cartels Practice and Procedure'

by Michael O'Kane

Peters & Peters are pleased to announce that 'The Law of Criminal Cartels' by Michael O'Kane, Partner and Head of the Fraud and Regulatory Department, will be published by Oxford University Press on 3rd September 2009.

This book is the first work to focus exclusively on the UK cartel offence from the practitioner's perspective. The text provides an analysis of the relevant black letter law and procedure - bringing together the criminal, regulatory, and civil law regimes. It provides detailed coverage of the history and development of anti-cartel enforcement, examining in depth the elements of the offence that give rise, for the first time, to personal criminal liability in the UK.

Contributors include Jasvinder Nakhwal, an Associate at Peters & Peters' Jessica Simor, Matrix Chambers and John O'Flaherty, Matrix Chambers

If you would be interested in finding out further information about this publication please click on the link below

<http://ukcatalogue.oup.com/product/9780199561209.do?keyword=cartel&sortBy=bestMatches>