Mr Michael Bowsher QC is a barrister in Monckton Chambers where he has a practice in procurement law, EU regulatory law and competition law. He appears frequently as counsel in procurement disputes including injunction hearings and claims for damages. He also advises on work relating to a range of project finance and PFI/PPP matters and a range of competition law matters.

Mr Rhodri Thompson QC is a barrister in chambers at Matrix. He is a leading specialist in EC and UK competition law. He has contributed the chapter on Article 82 to the latest edition of Bellamy and Child and is also a contributor to Weinberg and Blank on Takeovers and Mergers (EC substantive appraisal) and to Montgomery and Ormerod on Fraud: Criminal Law and Procedure (cartel offence).

Mr John O'Flaherty is a barrister in chambers at Matrix. Specialising in European and UK competition law. He is currently co-authoring the chapter on substantive EU merger law for Weinberg and Blank on Mergers and Takeovers, and is a contributing editor to the forthcoming edition of Bellamy and Child European Community Law of Competition. Before coming to the Bar, he worked as a professional economist, specialising in the economics of competition policy and regulation.

Ms Pat Treacy is a partner with Bristows. She has an exceptional degree of expertise in the application of competition law to intellectual property and its role in high technology industries including the biotechnology, medical devices and IT sectors. She is a member of the Solicitors European Group, of the British Institute of International and Comparative Law, and of the Competition Law Association and is also on the editorial board for the Journal of Intellectual Property Law and Practice.

Ms Elisa Holmes is a member of Monckton Chambers. She has significant experience in relation to all aspects of competition law and has acted for both government and private parties. She has particular experience in the telecommunications and broadcasting sectors and has advised in relation to a number major merger references and regularly advises in relation to Chapter I / Article 81 issues.

Ms Jasvinder Nakhwal is an Associate at Peters & Peters. She is a specialist in cartels in Peters & Peters' Cartels team and has wide experience in dealing with major international cartel investigations undertaken by the US Department of Justice, the European Commission, the Australian Competition & Consumer Commission, the Canadian Competition Bureau and the OFT. Headline cases in which she has been involved recently, include the two separate investigations into British Airways relating to the price-fixing of fuel surcharges and the investigation into price fixing and bid-rigging in the marine hoses market, where recently a landmark plea agreement was reached with the US Department of Justice and the OFT. She and Peters & Peters' partner Michael O'Kane, act for one of the executives who were prosecuted by the OFT, in the OFT's first prosecution, pursuant to the Enterprise Act 2002.
