Cartels: A special type of crime? - Issues and Solutions

Debate on 15 July 2008 at Outer Temple Chambers

Chair: Richard Lissack QC

Panel: David Rawlings, OFT, Senior Criminal Lawyer
Michael Bowes QC, Outer Temple Chambers
Michael O'Kane, Peters & Peters

You are invited to attend this debate on where the law now stands after Norris.

1. Prosecuting companies: is it possible at all? If so for what offence?
2. Prosecuting individuals: what is the test for dishonesty in section 188?
3. Public Policy: when will the OFT prosecute and what is the point of section 188 where there has been civil settlement and the "crimes" are corporate?

Attendance is by invitation only to reserve your place, or for further information please contact Stephen Somerville email stephen.somerville@outertemple.com or 020 7353 6381.

The event qualifies for 1 CPD point.

4:30pm for 5:00pm start followed by drinks and canapés
