George is a trainee in the Business Crime Department. Since joining the department he has assisted in a wide range of matters, including extradition proceedings, HMRC investigations, and UK risk arising from foreign prosecution.

George joined Peters & Peters in 2015 to work on a complex multi-party civil fraud as a member of the Commercial Litigation team. The alleged fraud concerns tax-leveraged investments sold to hundreds of investors, and includes claims against banks as well as advisors acting in breach of their fiduciary duties.

Prior to joining the firm, George worked on an insider dealing prosecution at the FCA, and a £300 million damages claim arising from allegations of prosecutorial misconduct at the SFO. George has also worked with death-row inmates in capital appeals before the Supreme Court of Uganda.

George studied history at Warwick and was called to the Bar by Inner Temple in 2013.
